

➤ Rubbing Your Middle Finger Over Your Thumb

-I like this movement because of its versatility; by adding it to some of the directives below, you transform. Raise your hands to the heavens, as you dig your hips into the earth. Add voodoo head and Zils. You are: The Belly Dancer. Gesture one stiff hand out, widen eyes. You are: The Pariah. Bend the elbow, narrow the eyes. You are: The Prostitute. Dip your digits into holy water. Raise above forehead. Add guttural screams whilst kneeling below mosaic. You are: The Christian Prophet. Wrap head in large turban printed with dollar signs. Speak through clenched jaw. Fling wrists toward ground to punctuate action words. You have: Done too much cocaine.
